JUDGMENT

Koshy.J

This is a petition for police protection. According to the petitioner he borrowed some amount from the 5th respondent. According to the petitioner he has repaid the amount but the 5th respondent did not return the blank cheque. The petitioner is being threatened by the 5th respondent to realise the money again. This matter is a civil dispute. We cannot decide the question whether money was paid back etc. in this petition under Article 226 of the Constitution of India. Without expressing any opinion regarding the merits of the disputes between the parties, the police is directed that the law and order is maintained and the lives of both parties are not endangered. This writ petition is disposed of accordingly.
